Maths – Chance and Data
Collect two dice.
Draw a table into your homework book to record your information. You are going to throw the dice 20 times and record your information onto a tally.
Now have another family member throw the same dice 20 times. Record their information onto a new tally.
Compare the two tallies and make some statements using some chance and data language.
Write 3 questions that could be used by others when reading the data and comparing the two tallies.

Grade Five Cultural Diversity Fun Quiz
Make a list of as many words as you can for ‘hello’. If the word is specifically ‘Australian’ highlight it.
How many words can you find?

Literacy/Cultural Diversity
Aborigines were the native Australians. They have had a culture that is different to many other cultures around the world.
Find out the meanings of these:
- walkabout
- didgeridoo
- kangaroo
- boomerang
- Echuca
- Pindari

Think about the name of the street you live in. Does it sound as if it might have an aboriginal origin? Write it down and find out what it means. Use the internet to help you. On the way home, look around the area and see if there are some other aboriginal words that you can find the meaning of.
Record you findings in your homework book.
